

Famous Tree Moves To Sacred Ground

If Daniel Webster, famous American statesman, should return to Washington looking for the shade tree under which he rested at his home there, he might be surprised to find it growing healthily in another part of town. The tree, as shown in the picture, has been moved over to the Lincoln Memorial Grounds for preservation and given prominent place.

Studebaker

IN buying a motor car, you either buy satisfaction—or with you had. You buy positive satisfaction when you select the Studebaker SPECIAL-SIX. Here's why:

Its 50-horsepower motor gives you ample power and speed.

Its roomy body is as handsome as it is well built. It is made complete in Studebaker's own shops where fine coach work has been in progress for 70 years.

Its 119-inch wheelbase insures utmost comfort for five passengers because it provides room enough for the passengers to relax, without crowding, in deep, restful, genuine leather upholstery.

Its dependability has been proved in the hands of thousands of owners.

And when you compare it with other cars, keep in mind these features of equipment and remember the price of the SPECIAL-SIX is $1475 f.o.b. factory:

Jeweled eight-day clock on instrument board.
Cowl ventilator controlled from instrument board.
Tonneau lamp with extension cord.
Parking lights in lower corners of windshield base.
One-piece rain-proof windshield and windshield wiper.
Large rectangular plate glass rear window—7½ x 23 in.
Tool compartment in left hand front door with lock.
Transmission lock which reduces cost of insurance to owner 15% to 20%.
One key operates the Yale lock on ignition switch, transmission and tool compartment.

We shall be glad to tell you of many other important points of superiority of the SPECIAL-SIX. You owe it to yourself to see a Studebaker before you buy any car.
